Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  25X1  SECRET	DEC 1951 51-4	Approved For Release 2006/10/19 : CIA-RDP80-00809A000500780147-0
COUNTRY  Operations of Meuselwitz Reavy Machine Works  1. The Schwermarchinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Ause of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lates, drilling machines, railing machines, and several small turret lathes.  2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, Jure and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were annufactured for jungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firms name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since dereloped that these two machines were shown at the Lr pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the lungarian matsonal Radosi works in evidence of two capacity of the flungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very lad shape. The shop management has been appealed to oversome the deficit by economics and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,00 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.		25X1
INFORMATION REPORT  Operations of Meuselvitz Reavy Machine Works  25X1  Onte Distr. 25 Nov 53  No. of FACES 1	•
INFORMATION REPORT  Derations of Meuselwitz Heavy Machine Works  25X1  DATE DISTR. 25 Nov 53  NO. OF PAGES 1  NO. OF PAGES 1  NO. OF FAGES 1  NO. OF FAGES 1  NO. OF ENCLS.  Supp. TO  REPORT NO.  This is UNEVALUATED information  The Schwermatchinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VER glow of Leipzig. Measelwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, dralling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy dralling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A li-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Munagry; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not make the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Li pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rikosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases in the deficit by economics and production increases in the deficit of the same works.  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1		25X1
Dermany (Soviet Zone)  25X1  2		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY 25X1
Operations of Meuselwitz Heavy Machine Works  25X1  25
25X1  DATE DISTR. 23 Nov 53  No. of PAGES 1  No. of ENCLS.  SUPP. To REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  1. The Schwermarchinenhau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig.  Menselvitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small burret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, Juve and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy redial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 august. They did not manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 august. They did not manufactured for the lungarian has been achines were shown at the Li 'pzig Pair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Bungarian mational Rékosi works in evidence of the capacity of the lungarian mational Rékosi works in evidence of the capacity of the lungarian mational Rékosi works in evidence of the capacity of the lungarian mational Rékosi works in evidence of the capacity of the has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.	COUNTRY	Germany (Soviet Zone)
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To-Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial horing machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Mungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two shown at the L'pzig Pair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rukosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases an intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.	SUBJECT	Operations of Meuselwitz Heavy Machine Works
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, rilling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To-Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Mungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's mame plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two shown at the L'pzig Pair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Mungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Mungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases in intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, rilling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To-Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Mungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's mame plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two shown at the L'pzig Pair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Mungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Mungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases in intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig.  Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turnet lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, Jure and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were anunfactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has sign adverted that these two machines were shown at the L'pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Rungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the dapacity of the Rungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.		25X1
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig.  Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turnet lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, Jure and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were anunfactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has sign adverted that these two machines were shown at the L'pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Rungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the dapacity of the Rungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
1. The Schwermarchinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmis name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the L'pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Rungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Rungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.		DATE DISTR. 23 Nov 53
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the L'prig Pair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economics and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,:00 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, Jure and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Le'pzig Pair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rákosi yorks in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  SECRET  25X1  SECRET		OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18. SECTIONS 789 NO. OF ENCLS.
1. The Schwermaschinenbau Meuselwitz is mainly engaged in manufacturing machine tools for export and reparations orders. The former part of the factory which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, Jure and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Leipzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmts name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Letyzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,200 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.	25X1	O THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION REPORT NO.
which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmts name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Later part Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,200 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmts name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Letyzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,200 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmts name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Letyzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,200 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Letyzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,200 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.
which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig. Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and iron shearers.  2. In July 1955 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmts name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Letyzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,200 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.		and the de moduly engaged in manufacturing machine
2. In July 1953 there were delivered:  a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the LC pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rákosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  SECRET  25X1  OPR EV	1.	which manufactured mining equipment now belongs to the VEB Abus of Leipzig.  Meuselwitz makes chiefly heavy lathes, drilling machines, milling machines, and
a. To Poland, three deep bed turning lathes (bed three meters long); a six-ton heavy drilling machine, and several small turret lathes.  b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firmt's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Laterian particle of the capacity of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  SECRET  25X1
b. To the Soviet Union, mainly separate machine parts to a total weight of about 160 tons; the order covered the months of May, June and July.  3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Language Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  SECRET  25X1  OPR EV	2.
3. A 14-ton heavy radial boring machine and an 18-ton heavy plate shears were manufactured for Hungary; they had to be finished by 12 August. They did not have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the L. pzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  SECRET  25X1  OPR FY		heavy drilling machine, and several small buffer lattice.
manufactured for Hungary; they had to be Intrinsiced. It has since developed have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Largery Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.  4. A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.  5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  SECRET  25X1		160 tons; the order covered the months of May, sale and buly
5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  SECRET  25X1	3.	manufactured for Hungary; they had to be limined by it has since developed have the firm's name plate, as is the usual practice. It has since developed that these two machines were shown at the Letpzig Fair on 30 Aug 53 as products of the Hungarian national Rakosi works in evidence of the capacity of the Hungarian heavy industry.
5. The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases an intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom has been canceled.  25X1  25X1  SECRET	4.	A heavy press was delivered to the Alexander-Werk at Schmalkalden, and a 30-ton steam trip hammer was manufactured for the same works.
25X1 25X1 SECRET 25X1	5.	The finances of the Meuselwitz works are in very bad shape. The shop management has been appealed to overcome the deficit by economies and production increases.  An intended expenditure of 15,000 marks for the construction of a new washroom
SECRET 25X1 ORR EV		25X1 - end
25X1		25X1
TEN TORR EV		SECRET
I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I
DISTRIBUTION STATE ARMY NAVY	DISTRIBUTION	STATE ARMY NAVY AIR FB1 ORR EV